Planned Giving & Endowments

The Springfield Public Library Foundation (SPLF) has two endowments that help support the Library and Museum and we invite the public to contribute to either.

The Legacy Giving Endowment is an unrestricted endowment fund that was started by the SPLF. Interest from the endowment can be used to support operations and services in the Library and Museum.

The second endowment is the Kate Wallace Endowment. Kate Wallace contributed her time and talent to Springfield organizations and schools. In 2006 she was named United Way of Lane County's Volunteer of the year. She served as President of the Friends of the Springfield Public Library, fundraising and supporting the Library for years. Kate's husband, Dennis Shine, carried on her legacy, donating funds to the Springfield Public Library Foundation to establish the Kate Wallace Endowment Fund. Interest from the endowment will be used to support educational materials to English- and Spanish-speaking children and families for years to come.

Planned giving allows people to make lasting contributions to causes they care about well beyond their lifetime. For more information about Planned Giving or to donate to an endowment contact the Springfield Public Library Foundation at springfieldorlibraryfoundation@gmail.com.

Annual Gift from the Friends

The Friends of the Springfield Public Library recently presented a check to the Springfield Public Library and History Museum for $35,000!

Each year, the Friends provide an annual gift from proceeds raised from the Book Sale in March, as well as ongoing sales at our store inside the library and other fundraising efforts.

We are so grateful for the community's support that allows us to help fund library and museum programs and services. Thank you!

Displays from the Foundation

The Springfield Public Library Foundation is proud to share that we've raised enough funds to purchase new display bookshelves! Thank you again to all our donors and supporters.

These shelves will help highlight new releases, staff favorites, community recommendations, and so many other wonderful materials that deserve to be discovered.
